

It is an excellent idea to allow XM Radio to provide instant traffic and weather. All too often, local radio channels are only allotted a few seconds to give a cursory traffic report. XM will be able to provide much better information for large metropolitan areas. However, regardless of the content of the programming, it is imperative that special interests are not allowed to limit personal freedoms permitted by the Constitution. Do not allow NAB to undermine the First Amendment.